

EMERGENCY RISK MANAGEMENT

OBJECTIVE

To provide participants with the concepts & practices of applying emergency risk management to an organisation in line with the Risk Management Standard AS/NZS 4360 (2004).

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

- Knowledge of the stages of Emergency Risk Management Process
- Able to discuss the application of Emergency Risk Management
- Knowledge of the differences between risk management as it applies to an organisation & to a community
- Participants can outline the benefits associated with using the Emergency Risk Management process

Training Strategy

This course consists of theory and practical sessions culminating in scenario based exercises.

KEY SUBJECT AREAS

- Establishing context
- Identifying Risks
- Analysing Risks
- Evaluating Risks
- Treating Risks
- Communicating and Consulting
- Monitoring and Reviewing

DESIGNED FOR

People interested in learning the emergency risk management process. Especially those who may participate in the emergency risk management process at local /regional level, on behalf of an organisation or a community.

DURATION

Two days

Contact GES

for more information on

(08) 9473 2900

